Irish Riders Motorcycle Club presents the Grand Tour of Ireland

May the road rise to meet you and may the wind always be at your back. You won't need a shamrock as you take on this Grand Tour because the Irish Riders will provide all the direction you need to visit destinations harkening back to the ol' Sod, earning points along the way.

Midnight Riders present the Color the World with KOA Grand Tour

If you like the thrill of the unknown, this tour should color you happy. Find at least 30 destinations with one of 10 colors in their names, such as White County, or Silver Creek, and take a picture of your bike there. You won't know how many points you've earned until the end of the Grand Tour, when the Midnight Riders will draw cards to determine how many points will be assigned to each color. The rider with the most points wins a prize.

SCMA presents the USA 4 Corners Grand Tour

For serious riders only. The point of this extreme Grand Tour is to visit the four geographic corners of the USA. That's it – four destinations. Oh, did we mention you have 21 days to do it? That's the challenge of the USA Four Corners Grand Tour. Are you up for it?

Dayton Motorcycle Club presents the Ride with the AMA 85th Ann. Classic Grand Tour

Do you know what the towns of Jamaica Plain, MA; Kalamazoo, MI; and Panama City, FL have in common? Well, for starters they're all stops on this year's AMA National Grand Tour. They're among the 400 cities and towns in the US that have the sequential letters A-M-A in their name. Last run in 2003, this year's Classic Grand Tour celebrates the AMA's 85 years protecting and promoting the interests of motorcyclists. Why don't you come along?

Road Winders present the American Roadside Attractions Grand Tour

What could be more American than a 11 foot ball of twine, or an auto graveyard known as "Carhenge"? Do you want to find out? The Road Winders want to help you find as much real American roadside kitsch as possible. Make sure you have your camera ready and get on the road!
